

Keikogi:

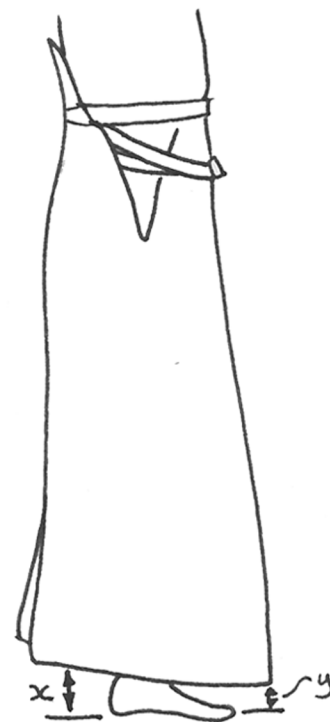

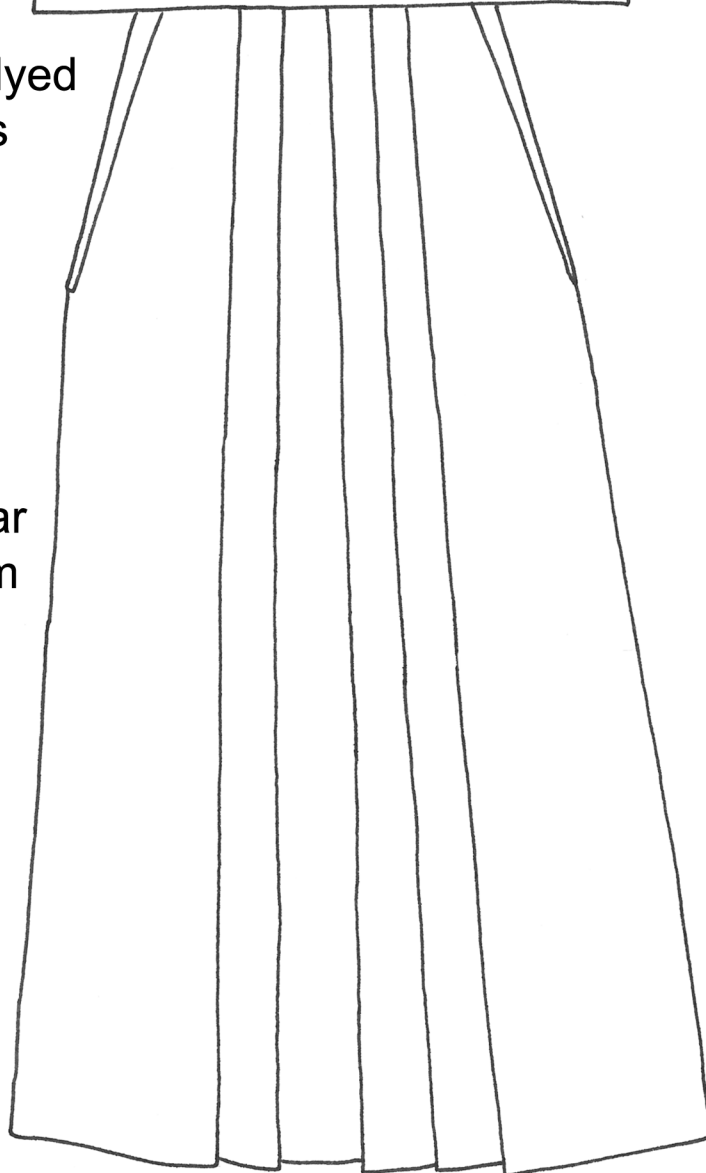

Usually, but not always, dyed with aizome. A natural indigo dye with antiseptic and insect repelent properties.

Hakama:

The hakama is dyed the same way as the keikogi.

Some people prefer to wear a white hakama & keikogi but you should try to wear the same uniform as the other kendoka in your dojo.

The rear of the hakama should be higher than the front

x should be higher than y
